Please carefully read this License agreement and Privacy Statement as it describes the legal rights and obligations related to this Joint Document (as defined in Section 1). Access to and use of this Joint Document by each reader, or user as individual or legal entity ("Licensee" or "You") are subject to the following License.

1. Purpose

IMEC vzw ("imec") and ADVANCED SoC RESEARCH FOR AUTOMOTIVE ("ASRA") (collectively, "we," "us," or "our") have jointly a document ("Joint Document") that is now publicly available under public license ("Public License" or "License") and serves as an initial work-in-progress version ("WIP") guide on chiplet archetypes and their application in automotive systems to lay the groundwork that will guide the development of future automotive chiplets-based systems.

Notice: This Public License solely governs the use of this Joint Document by a Licensee and under no circumstances regulates or entitles any membership of imec and ASRA, and those programs.

This Public License does not extend to any proprietary information, know-how, materials or technologies of any kind, including other standards such as PCIe, BoW, ARM CSA, RISC-V, I3C, and UCIe referenced in the Joint Document. Licensee is responsible for compliance with their respective applicable terms of use.

2. Applicable terms

By downloading, copying, designing to, or otherwise accessing or using the Joint Document: Licensee acknowledges and confirms that it has read and understood this License and the Privacy Statement (if applicable) and accepts to be legally bound by this License.

If You have any queries about this Joint Document or this License, You may contact us by email as set out in Article 7 of this License. If You do not agree with all the terms and conditions of this License, do not download or use the Joint Document. Any derogation from the present License and our Privacy Statement (if applicable) is excluded unless with prior agreement in writing by us.

If You are entering into this License on behalf of a company or other legal entity, you represent that you have the legal authority to bind the entity to this License, in which case

“You” and “Your” will mean the entity You represent and its affiliates.

3. Intellectual Property Rights

3.1. Ownership – We own and control all rights, title and interest in and to the Joint Document and its modifications and derivative works, including their respective intellectual property rights, subject to Your licensing rights under Article 3.2. This Joint Document may include references to materials from our licensors and/or third parties.

3.2. Licenses - We grant Licensee a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, royalty free right to use the content in the Joint Document for informational and reference purposes only.

Licensee agrees that there are no rights to: (i) modify or create derivative works based on the Joint Document: and (ii) distribute and/or publish this Joint Document.

For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this license shall prevent the Licensee from (a) distributing the Joint Document internally within its own organization, (b) using excerpts of the Joint Document by way of quotation, or (c) otherwise using the Joint Document in any manner permitted under applicable law.

However, this license does not extend to any proprietary information, know-how, materials, technologies or patent rights of any kind, Licensee is responsible for compliance with their respective applicable terms of use.

3.3. Feedback - You may, but don't have to, provide to us suggestions, feature requests or other feedback regarding the Joint Document, including possible enhancements or modifications to the Joint Document in accordance with Section 7. For any feedback that You voluntarily provide, You hereby grant us a perpetual, non-exclusive, worldwide, irrevocable license to use, reproduce, modify, license, sublicense (through multiple tiers of sublicensees), and distribute (through multiple tiers of distributors) it without the payment of any royalties or fees to You. We may use feedback at our discretion and for any purpose, including, without limitation, (i) reissuing or republishing the Joint Document incorporating the feedback, and (ii) submitting the feedback to standardization bodies for incorporation into their specification. You represent and warrant that You own or otherwise control all copyright and other intellectual property rights in any feedback You provide, and that such feedback does not incorporate any copyrighted work of a third party without authorization. If any third-party copyrighted work is incorporated in Your feedback and we suffer any damage as a result, You shall be responsible for such damage. You agree not to assert or exercise any moral rights in the feedback against us in connection with our use of the feedback.

4. Mandatory acknowledgement - Publicity

4.1. Licensee must include a proper attribution to the Joint Document when referring to its content. That attribution must include, at minimum, “Used under a Public License Agreement of the Joint Document residing from the imec AECP and ASRA” and including the Joint Document version name and number, and link to the websites (https://acir.imec-int.com, https://asra.jp).

4.2. Other than your obligation to provide a mandatory acknowledgement as stated in Section 4.1. no license, express, implied or otherwise, is granted to (i) use our name and/or our trademarks and/or the name for other purposes; and (ii) to use the name and/or trademarks of imec AECP members and/or ASRA members; nor shall You make any representations on behalf of us and/or separate AECP members and/or ASRA members related to the Joint Document.
